Hope you're not getting too much fan mail and manage to get a decent nights sleep
The only reasonable response is ridicule. I appreciate your levity!
Gotta stay sane somehow

Hey Mike, do you know how many RCMP are on ground today, and how many new ones we getting today, tomorrow and Sunday?
Not for public consumption, I know.

Sure thing— this is what I have:
RCMP confirms they have committed approx. 250 members per day. As of right now, this is the breakdown for the weekend:
Day shift – 47 deployed; 71 on standby (i.e., have not be assigned a post/shift)
Night shift – 59 deployed; 116 on standby (i.e., have not be assigned a post/shift)
The OPS has line of sight. The RCMP's lead is in direct contact with the Chief's 2iC.
Thank you
Commissioner says there is a backlog in swearing in
